

THE TRUE DEMOCRAT.

JOHN G. COLLINS, Publisher.

PUBLISHED EVERY FRIDAY MORNING.

Are You a "Misunderstood" Girl?

When you reach a lonesome bit of the road,
Curtained about with mist and morn,
And you hear faint sounds from the dread above,
Where shivering, grim hobgoblins lurk,
Just laugh to scorn their doleful cries—
This is the place to whistle and sing—
Brush the fog from your fearless eyes,
And close to the faith of your fathers cling.
When you come to a wearisome bit of the road,
Where the stones are thick and the path is steep,
And the back is bowed with the heave of the load,
As the narrowing way is hard to keep,
Don't stop just then for a wasteful sign,
But challenge the worst with steadfast cheer;
If nowhere else, there is help on high—
God's angel will hasten your plea.
When you stand at a sorrowful bit of the road,
And a hand you loved has loosened its grasp;
When streams are dry that in sweetness flowed,
And flowers drop from your listless grasp;
Even now take heart, for further on
There are hope and joy and the dawn of day;
You shall find again what you thought was gone:
"The merry heart goes all the way."

A Daredevil Ride

Often ends in a sad accident. To heal accidental injuries use Bucklen's Arnica Salve. "A deep wound in my foot, from an accident," writes Theodore Schuels, of Columbus, O., "caused me great pain. Physicians were helpless, but Bucklen's Arnica Salve quickly healed it." Soothes and heals burns like magic. 25c., at all druggists.

Carrabelle Letter.

Schooners John Nye and E. Hempstead, Gulf Trading Company's smacks, were carried to Apalachicola to be placed on the ways. The Hempstead was tied up at the wharf one night last week. Next morning Capt. Gorm discovered that the vessel was leaking, and, on investigation, found that a piling had punched a hole through her starboard side. Mr. John Kersy patched her to keep her afloat until they could reach Apalachicola.

Mr. Farin says let the wind blow, but not too hard. He remembers August 1st, 1900, and a number of citizens here do too. We have almost passed hurricane months.

Justice of the Peace Wathen is quite sick.

Schooner "Blanche," of Pensacola, was at the wharf Monday with a cargo of oil. She carried 100 pounds of naval stores from Pensacola to East Point.

Camp Lumber Company have bought the holdings of Hays Lumber Company here and forty odd teams and two tram engines up the Ocklockonee River. Ten thousand logs at the boom, and on the river, a steambot to tow them and one of the finest mills in Franklin were transferred to Camp Lumber Company at a handsome figure.

Carrabelle is much in need of a quarantine station.

We hear such remarks as, "Collins is sure heating 'em hot."

Crescent City went on the run again Saturday night to a week.

See via this Life.

J. W. Davnort, Wingo, Ky., writes June 14, 1902: "I want to tell you I believe Ballard's Snow Liniment saved my life. I was under the treatment of two doctors, and they told me on of my lungs was entirely gone, and the other was a cancer. I had a lamp on my side. I don't think that I could have lived over two months longer. I was induced by a friend to try Ballard's Snow Liniment. The first application gave me great relief, and finally cured me soundly."

It is a wonderful medicine, and I recommend it to anyone suffering from any ailment by all druggists.

Celebration of Jewish New Year.

Speaking of the reasons some Jews observe two days while others celebrate one New Year's Day, is explained by Rabbi H. S. Stollnitz, of Tampa, as follows:

"It is impossible to crowd into a brief article the details of an exhaustive investigation, and to demonstrate how the history of the Jewish calendar may be divided into the Biblical, Talmudical and Post-Talmudical periods. Suffice it here to say that all Jewish holidays, feast and fast days are observed in accordance with the new moon, ergo the Jewish festival were fixed on given days of lunar months, although they also had a dependence on the position of the sun.

According to the Talmud, in the time of the second temple, the priests had a court to which witnesses came and reported the appearance of the new moon. The fixing of the lengths of the months was the prerogative of the Sanhedrin. The alteration depended on actual calculation of the relative lengths of the solar and lunar years, which were handed down by tradition in the patriarchal family.

On the evening of the intercalation the patriarch assembled certain scribes, who assisted in the decision, and their finding was transmitted to the communities by letters. The people of Babylon and surrounding countries were then further apprised of the beginning of the month by fire signals. The remaining Jewish communities, removed from Babylon, as in Egypt, Asia Minor and Greece, who were not so positively informed of the beginnings of months by fire signals (often false signals were given by non-Jews to lead the Jews astray), observed two days not only of the new moon, but of every holiday.

Hence, Orthodox Jews observe two days of New Year and every other fast day. Living in an age in which even every child may know the exact time of the month, day and to the fraction of a minute, the reform-progressive Jew contents himself with the proper celebration of one day."

Cheated Death.

Kidney trouble often ends fatally, but by choosing the right medicine E. H. Wolfe, of Bear Grove, Iowa, cheated death. He says: "Two years ago I had Kidney Trouble, which caused me great pain, suffering and anxiety, but I took Electric Bitters, which effected a complete cure. I have also found them of great benefit in general debility and nerve trouble, and keep them constantly on hand since, as I find they have no equal." All druggists guarantee them at 50c.

An Important Case.

From Hon. Nat. R. Walker, of Crawfordville, who was in the city some days ago. The True Democrat learned some of the particulars of the decision of Judge Malone in the recent mandamus case of Edwards vs. the Commissioners of Wakulla County, involving the hiring of county convicts under the act of 1903. The demurrer of Mr. Walker to the petition was sustained, and the matter was given until the October rule day to amend.

Incidentally, and in addition to the several grounds of demurrer presented all of which were sustained, the question of the constitutionality of the act was considered, and the decision of the court thereon has been promised and will appear in a later issue.
